CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

Name.

The name of this association is "The Naval and Military Order of the Spanish-American War."

ARTICLE II.

Objects.

The objects of the Order are to cherish the memories and associations of the war with Spain; to promote ties of fellowship and sympathy among those who participated in the war, and to acquire and preserve the records of their individual services; to advance the best interests of the sailors and soldiers of the United States; to promote unqualified allegiance to the general government; to protect the rights and liberties of American citizenship; and to maintain the national honor.

ARTICLE III.

Membership.

Any man of good repute shall be eligible to membership in the Order who was on the active list, or performed active duty (and who is still in the service, or has received an honorable discharge from the same) as a commissioned officer, regular or volunteer, in the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, during the war with Spain, or in the subsequent insurrection in the Philippines prior to April 1, 1901; or who participated in the said war or insurrection, prior to said date, as a naval or military cadet, or as an officer in the United States Revenue Cutter Service on any vessel assigned to duty under the control of the United States Navy Department, or as a warrant officer, non-commissioned officer, or enlisted man and subsequently became a commissioned officer in the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps.

Upon the death of any Companion of the Order or officer eligible to membership by right of personal service in said war or insurrection, his eldest direct male lineal descendant according to the rules of primogeniture, shall be eligible; and if there is no such descendant, then the male heir of such deceased Companion or officer in the collateral branches of his family in the order of genealogical succession according to the rules of primogeniture, disregarding intervening female lives, shall be eligible.

PROVIDED, FIRST. That the inheritance shall in every case of succession be traced anew from the original founder of the membership in the Order, or deceased officer as aforesaid, and not otherwise, and shall be limited in cases of collateral succession to the brothers, and descendants of brothers and sisters, of such Original Companion or deceased officer; in cases of representation through females, the elder branches shall be preferred to the younger.

SECOND. That any person eligible to membership by inheritance, or by renunciation of another, may, in writing, waive and renounce his right to such eligibility in favor of the person next entitled at the time of such renunciation, excepting that no person who is a direct lineal descendant of an Original Companion or deceased officer as aforesaid shall be allowed to waive his right in favor of a collateral relative of such Original Companion or deceased officer.

THIRD. That in case a Companion, or person already eligible to membership, is next in line of inheritance from an Original Companion or deceased officer as aforesaid, the eligibility to membership derived from such deceased Companion or officer shall devolve upon the person next entitled other than such living Companion or person already eligible, or the direct lineal descendant of either; but any Original Companion having no direct lineal descendant may, by writing filed with the Recorder of the Commandery in which he may be enrolled, or by his last will and testament or instrument in the nature thereof, nominate for life his successor from among his male heirs within the said limits in the collateral branches of his family.

FOURTH. That in cases of inheritance by persons under the age of twenty-one years the right of succession to eligibility to membership, or of renunciation thereof, shall remain in abeyance until they shall attain that age.

FIFTH. That the resignation, expulsion, or forfeiture of membership of a Companion who has obtained such membership by inheritance, or the rejection by the Commandery of an applicant for membership whose claim thereto is based on inheritance, shall only work as a waiver of his rights in favor of the next person in line of inheritance from the Original Companion or deceased officer as aforesaid.

SIXTH. That no right of inheritance shall be derived from any Original Companion whose membership in the Order was forfeited under Article XVII of the Constitution, and who was not reinstated.

ARTICLE IV.

Organization.

The constituted bodies of the Order shall be known as Commanderies, and shall consist of a National Commandery, to be known as "The National Commandery of the Naval and Military Order of the Spanish-American War," and of Commanderies in the several States, Territories, Colonies and District of Columbia (hereinafter referred to as State Commanderies) to be known as "The..... Commandery of the Naval and Military Order of the Spanish-American War."

ARTICLE V.

National Commandery.

SECTION 1. The National Commandery shall consist of the National Officers, all former National Officers and three representatives from each State Commandery. Members of the National Commandery shall retain full membership in the several State Commanderies with which they are affiliated.

SECTION 2. Each State Commandery shall elect three representatives to the National Commandery who shall continue as such representatives until their successors are elected. Vacancies in the representation of a State Commandery at a meeting of the National Commandery may be filled by its representatives present selecting substitutes from the Companions present not representatives of, nor previously selected as substitutes by, another Commandery. If none of the representatives of a State Commandery can be present at a meeting of the National Commandery, its Commander shall cause to be transmitted to the Recorder-in-Chief duly certified authorization to the Commander-in-Chief to select from the Companions present not representing other Commanderies, three representatives to act for and represent such State Commandery.

SECTION 3. The National Commandery shall meet annually in May for the election of National Officers and members of the National Council, on such day and at such place as shall be designated by the National Council. It shall also meet at any other time by order of the National Council. Votes in the National Commandery shall be by State Commanderies, each having one vote.

SECTION 4. The supreme judicial and all legislative power is vested in the National Commandery.

ARTICLE VI.

National Officers.

SECTION 1. The National Officers shall be a Commander-in-Chief, a Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief, a Junior Vice Commander-in-Chief, a Recorder-in-Chief, a Registrar-in-Chief, a Deputy Registrar-in-Chief, a Treasurer-in-Chief, and a Chaplain-in-Chief. They shall be the officers of the Order and of the National Commandery. They shall be elected by the National Commandery at its annual meeting, shall enter upon their duties on the adjournment of that meeting and shall hold office until the adjournment of the next annual meeting and until their respective successors are elected and assume office.

SECTION 2. The duties and powers of the National Officers shall correspond with those prescribed in the Constitution for officers of the State Commanderies. The Deputy Registrar-in-Chief may perform all the duties of the Registrar-in-Chief.

ARTICLE VII.

National Council.

SECTION 1. The National Commandery shall elect at its annual meeting five Companions who with the Commander-in-Chief, Vice Commanders-in-Chief, Recorder-in-Chief, Registrar-in-Chief and Treasurer-in-Chief shall constitute the National Council. The National Council shall make rules for its own guidance, and shall have power to fill vacancies in its membership and among the National officers caused by refusal to accept office, death, resignation, or other cause. Its headquarters shall be in New York, N. Y.

SECTION 2. The chief executive power shall be vested in the National Council.

SECTION 3. In order to provide for the expenses of the National Council and National Commandery, each State Commandery shall pay on the first day of May, of each and every year, to the Treasurer-in-Chief the sum of fifty cents for each and every member of such Commandery (except life members) on its roster on said date.

SECTION 4. The National Commandery may authorize and institute a Commandery of the Order in any State, Territory, Colony or District, in which no Commandery exists, when petitioned to do so by five or more Companions of the Order residing in said State, Territory, Colony or District and on receipt of a charter fee of twenty-five dollars.

SECTION 5. The National Council shall prescribe a uniform application blank for the use of all the Commanneries, which shall contain the place and date of birth of the applicant and a statement of his rank and services, if applying for Companionship by right of personal service. If the applicant claims membership in the Order by inheritance the application shall set forth the facts upon which eligibility to membership is based. The National Council may also require such other information from the applicant as it may deem advisable.

SECTION 6. The National Council shall issue diplomas of membership to Companions of the Order. Every diploma of membership shall be signed by the Commander-in-Chief, have the seal of the Order affixed thereto and be attested by the Recorder-in-Chief. The diploma shall be in the following form:

THE NAVAL AND MILITARY ORDER of the
SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR.

runs a ribbon with the title of the Order.

An anchor hangs from the shield.

ARTICLE IX.

Seal of the Order.

The seal of the Order is circular, in the centre the American shield, paly of thirteen, argent and gules, a chief azure, thereon thirteen stars argent. This is encircled by the title of the Order.

ARTICLE X.

Insignia of the Order.

SECTION 1. The insignia of the Order consists of a badge as described below, surmounted by an American Bald Eagle, rising or, pendant from a ribbon.

OBVERSE. Upon a cross argent, an anchor in pale, and two field pieces in saltire, mouths upwards, or. Over all a medallion with the head of liberty in bas-relief, surrounded by a wreath of laurel of the second. Encircling the wreath, a ribbon gules; on it the inscription "Order of the Spanish-American War" or.

BADGE REVERSE. Upon a cross argent, a medallion or; thereon, the shield of the United States of America proper. In chief, the legend "Duty, Honour, Country;" in base two palm branches.

The ribbon shall be of watered silk, $1\frac{3}{8}$ inches in width, paly of seven: azure, argent, gules, or, gules, argent and azure—a combination of the Spanish colors flanked on either side by those of the United States of America.

SECTION 2. Companions of the National Commandery and the Commanders and Vice-Commanders of the State Commanderies shall wear the Cross suspended by the ribbon of the Order around the neck.

SECTION 3. The insignia shall never be worn as an article of jewelry. Upon the forfeiture of his membership by a Companion his insignia shall be returned to the State Commandery of which he was a member and the amount paid for it shall be refunded to the said former Companion by the Treasurer. The Commandery may re-issue such insignia to any of its Companions, not already possessed of one, provided that the number thereon be changed to the number of the Companion to whom it is re-issued, and the Registrar-in-Chief be notified of such action.

SECTION 4. In no case shall a duplicate insignia be issued except upon the recommendation of the Council of the State Commandery of which the applicant for the same is a Companion, based on his statement upon honor that the original was either lost or destroyed.

SECTION 5. The rosette or button of the Order shall be $\frac{1}{2}$ inch in diameter of watered silk with three sector shaped sections of red, white and blue, with a smaller section of yellow between the three larger sections. The rim shall be of red and yellow horizontal stripes to represent the Spanish National Colors.

SECTION 6. Companions may wear the rosette in the upper button-hole of the left hand lapel of the coat. The rosette shall not be worn at the same time as the insignia, but the insignia or rosette shall be worn at all meetings of the Order.

SECTION 7. A ribbon bar not exceeding $\frac{1}{4}$ inch in depth may be worn upon the left breast of the uniform coat.

SECTION 8. Impressions of the coat of arms, seal, insignia or rosette of the Order, shall not be printed upon or used in connection with any matter except on the letter paper and official documents of the constituted bodies of the Order, without permission first obtained from the National Council.

ARTICLE XI.

State Commanderies.

SECTION 1. The Charter of a State Commandery shall be in the form following:

[COAT OF ARMS].

THE NAVAL AND MILITARY ORDER of the SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR.

To all to whom these presents shall come,

GREETING:

Be it known that Companions.....

of.....in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and.....,

and of the Order the.....

Attest:

.....
Commander-in-Chief.

Recorder-in-Chief.

SECTION 2. Upon issuing a Charter, the Commander-in-Chief shall designate the time and place for the organization of the Commandery. The Officers shall then be chosen and shall enter on their duties at once, and hold office until their successors elected at the annual meeting next following shall assume office.

SECTION 3. Each State Commandery in the month of April, in every year, shall make a full report of its condition, with a general history of its proceedings to the Commander-in-Chief, and to each other State Commandery. Said report shall contain a list of Companions admitted to membership during the year and of the persons who have withdrawn from membership, specifying in the latter case whether from death, resignation, or other cause.

SECTION 4. Each State Commandery shall have power to adopt by-laws and rules and regulations for its own guidance and government, and may thereby transfer to the Commandery any of the powers or duties herein delegated to or imposed upon its Council; but such by-laws shall not otherwise conflict with the Constitution of the Order.

SECTION 5. Should any State Commandery cease to hold regular meetings for one year, or wilfully violate this Constitution, or be guilty of conduct prejudicial to the Order, its Charter may be revoked by the National Commandery; and in the event of such revocation the Companions of such Commandery in good standing shall be transferred to such other Commanderies as they may choose, or in default of choice to such other Commanderies as the National Council shall direct.

ARTICLE XII.

Officers and Council.

SECTION 1. The Officers of a State Commandery shall be a Commander, a Senior Vice Commander, a Junior Vice Commander, a Recorder, a Registrar, a Treasurer and a Chaplain. The officers with ten additional Companions shall constitute the Council of the Commandery. The officers and members of the Council shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Commandery by a majority of the votes cast. Should no candidate receive a majority of the votes cast on the first ballot, then the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes shall be dropped and so on at each successive ballot. The Companions so elected shall enter upon their duties on the adjournment of the annual meeting and shall hold office until the adjournment of the next annual meeting and until their successors are elected and assume office.

ARTICLE XIII.

Duties and Powers of Officers and Council.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the Commander to preside at all meetings of the Commandery and of the Council, enforce a strict observance of the Constitution and perform such other duties as custom and parliamentary usage may require. He shall have the power to convene the Council at his discretion and shall convene the Commandery at the request of the Council or upon the written request of ten Companions; and the Council upon the written request of three of its members.

SECTION 2. The Vice Commanders shall, when called upon, assist the Commander, and in his absence perform his duties, and shall succeed to his office, in event of his death, resignation, or removal.

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of the Recorder to record the proceedings of the Commandery and of the Council, to give notice of all meetings of the Commandery and Council and to conduct the general correspondence of the Commandery.

SECTION 4. It shall be the duty of the Registrar to keep a register of the Companions of the Commandery, embracing the material facts relating to their membership. In the absence or disability of the Recorder he shall act in his stead. He shall verify the claims of applicants for membership.

SECTION 5. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to keep the accounts between the Commandery and its members, collect all moneys due the Commandery, and pay all bills audited by the Council. He shall make a semi-annual report in writing to the Council. His books and accounts shall be audited semi-annually by a committee appointed for that purpose. He shall give such security as the Council may direct.

SECTION 6. It shall be the duty of the Chaplain to open the several meetings of the Commandery with prayer, and perform such other duties as general custom may require of him.

SECTION 7. The Council shall have general supervision of all business, and control of all property belonging to the Commandery, subject to its by-laws, if any. It shall be the executive board of the Commandery, and shall have power to admit new members, to accept resignations, to audit bills, to authorize transfers to and from other Commanderies, to arrange for social meetings of the Commandery, and to fill vacancies occurring in its own number and among the officers. In the event of the failure of any officer of the Commandery to perform properly the duties of his office through sickness, neglect, or other cause, whereby the interests of the Order suffer, the Council may suspend or remove such officer from his office, and may appoint another Companion to act in the place of the officer so suspended or removed; but a full report of the circumstances shall be made at the next meeting of the Commandery. Other duties may be prescribed by the by-laws or by the Commandery.

SECTION 8. The Council of each Commandery shall meet at least once in each third of a year into which the fiscal year is divided. The absence of any member of the Council from three consecutive meetings of the same shall be a vacation of his membership on such Council; but such absence shall be deemed excused unless the Council elect his successor.

ARTICLE XIV.

Election of Members.

SECTION 1. Applications for membership may be made to any State Commandery; provided that if a Commandery exists in the State in which the applicant resides, the application shall be made to that Commandery, unless its Council consents to the applicant's admission to some other Commandery.

SECTION 2. Every application for membership shall be made upon the prescribed blank and signed by the applicant, who shall be recommended in writing by two Companions of the Commandery to which he shall apply. The application shall be made in duplicate, and one copy shall be sent to the Registrar-in-Chief and the other kept by the State Commandery. The application shall be accompanied by an admission fee, which shall be refunded in case of non-election.

SECTION 3. The name, address and military record of every applicant for membership shall be forwarded at once by the Recorder of the State Commandery to the Recorder-in-Chief, who shall within ten days thereafter report whether the records in his office show any fact as to the applicant's eligibility. An application shall not be voted on until the Recorder-in-Chief and the Registrar of the Commandery have made their reports thereon.

SECTION 4. Applications for membership shall be considered and acted on by the Council of the Commandery; a single vote against the applicant shall cause postponement of action to the next meeting; two such votes shall reject the applicant.

SECTION 5. If an applicant be rejected, such action shall be communicated to the Recorder-in-Chief, and said applicant shall thereafter be ineligible for election, except after one year and in the Commandery by which he was rejected. Upon the election to membership in the Order of an applicant, it shall be the duty of the Recorder to notify the Registrar-in-Chief, who shall forthwith assign a National number to the new Companion.

ARTICLE XV.

Admission Fee and Dues.

SECTION 1. The admission fee shall be five dollars.

SECTION 2. The annual dues shall be three dollars, payable in advance on the first day of April in each year. The payment at one time of fifty dollars shall constitute a life membership, with the exemption of payment of annual dues thereafter.

SECTION 3. The fiscal year shall be divided into three parts: April, May, June and July constituting the first third; August, September, October and November the second; and December, January, February and March the third.

SECTION 4. Whenever any Companion is admitted to the Order or transferred to another Commandery, during the first third, the dues for balance of fiscal year or the amount transferred shall be three dollars; if in the second, two dollars; if in the last third, one dollar. When a life member is transferred, the whole amount of his membership fee shall be remitted to the Commandery to which he is transferred. All money settlements of the State Commanderies with each other shall be made at the beginning of each third of the fiscal year for the transactions of the preceding third.

SECTION 5. A Companion in arrears shall not be entitled to vote at the annual election for officers, nor be eligible to any office in the Order.

SECTION 6. Any Companion who, on the first day of June, may be in arrears for dues shall be notified thereof; and if such arrears shall not be paid within three months after such notice, the Council may, by a majority vote of the members present, suspend the Companion until such arrears be paid.

SECTION 7. Any Companion who shall neglect or refuse to pay his dues for eleven months after the same became payable, may be dropped from membership by vote of two-thirds of the Council present at any meeting, unless it shall appear that the delinquency has occurred unavoidably, in which case the Council by a unanimous vote of the members present at any meeting, may remit the whole or any portion of such arrears. A Companion so dropped may, upon payment of such arrears, be reinstated by the Council.

ARTICLE XVI.

Resignations and Transfers.

SECTION 1. Resignations shall be offered in writing to the Council and shall be forthwith accepted by it; provided the Companion is not under charges, and is not in arrears for dues.

SECTION 2. A Companion who shall have resigned, may, upon application to the Commandery of which he had been a member, be restored to membership by the Council thereof. In case of such restoration, his former number on the roll and the original number of his insignia shall be assigned to him.

SECTION 3. A Companion changing his abode, or his station, or upon the formation of a Commandery in the State in which he resides, may be transferred to the Commandery most accessible, upon written application to such Commandery, accompanied by a certificate that his dues have been paid.

SECTION 4. Transfers shall be effected through the Recorder-in-Chief. In case of a transfer the proportionate amount of dues paid in advance, from the date of transfer, in accordance with Article XV. Sec. 4, shall be remitted to the Treasurer of the Commandery to which the Companion is transferred.

ARTICLE XVII.

Forfeiture of Membership,

SECTION 1. Membership shall be forfeited only for violations of the obligations assumed on entering the Order; or for conduct unbecoming a gentleman. In such cases the insignia shall be returned to the Commandery.

SECTION 2. The dismissal, cashiering, or dishonorable discharge from the military or naval service of the United States, or the conviction in a Court of Justice for a criminal offense of any Companion shall constitute reason for his expulsion without further investigation.

SECTION 3. If the conduct or character of any Companion be impeached, the accusing Companion shall prefer charges in writing to the Council of the Commandery of which the accused is a member, who shall notify the accused and give him an opportunity to be heard, and if, after due investigation, the Council considers the charges to be sustained, it may expel, suspend, or reprimand the accused by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Council present at any meeting.

SECTION 4. A Companion who has been expelled may be re-instated by a unanimous vote of the Council present at a meeting after he shall have petitioned in writing for a re-instatement. Notice of such petition shall be published in a circular calling the meeting.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Meetings.

SECTION 1. The meetings of the several State Commanderies shall be held at such times as the Commandery or the Council shall determine; provided that the annual meeting for the election of Officers and Council and the transaction of general business shall be held on the 21st day of April, or as near that date as may be convenient, the time and place to be determined by the Council.

SECTION 2. Special meetings shall be convened as specified in Article XIII, Sec. 1, upon not less than five days notice.

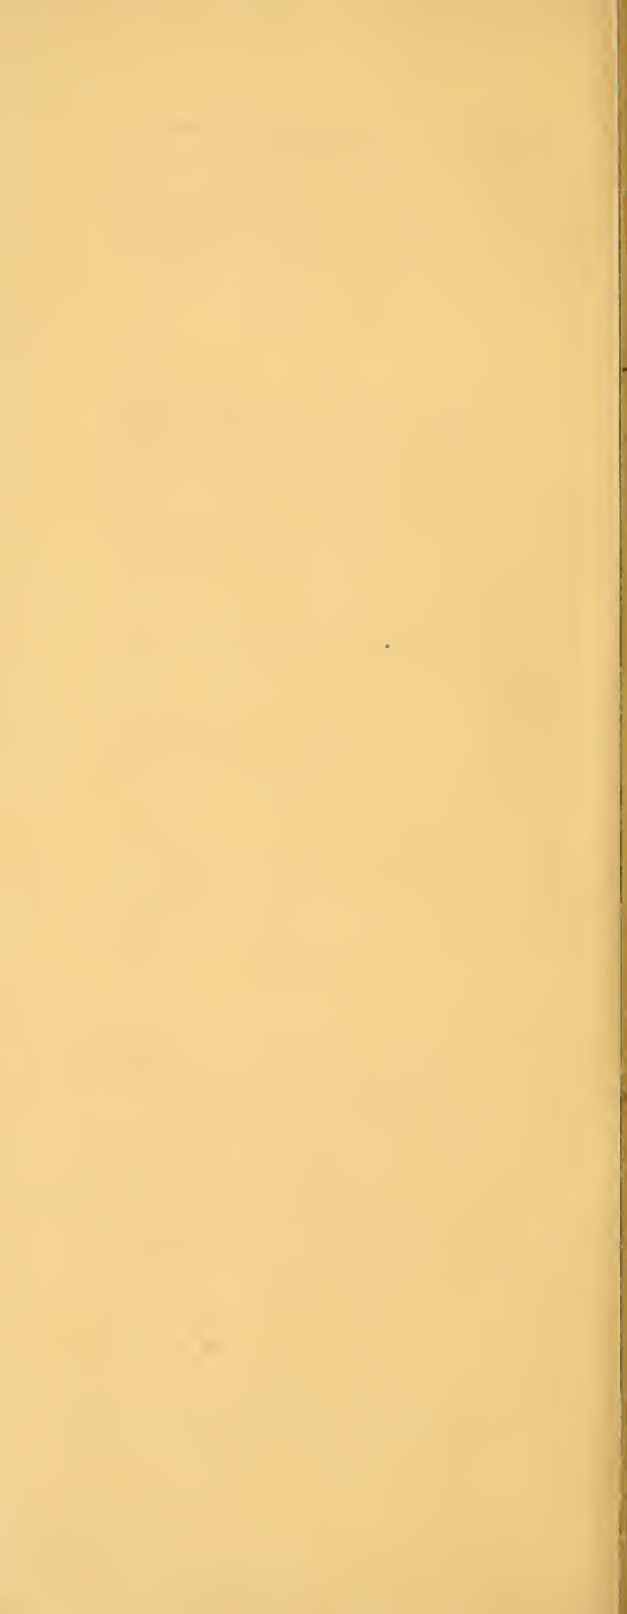

SECTION 3. Five members of the Council shall constitute a quorum at its meetings. The presence of one-fourth of the Companions of a Commandery, or if one-fourth be ten or more, then ten shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at its meetings.

SECTION 4. None but Companions of the Order shall be present at business meetings.

ARTICLE XIX.

Amendments.

Amendments to this Constitution may be made at any regular meeting of the National Commandery by a two-thirds vote, provided that such amendment shall have been proposed by the Council of a State Commandery, and that notice in writing of the proposed amendment in form shall have been sent by mail to the several State Commanderies not less than sixty days prior to the date of the meeting at which such proposed amendment is acted on.
